

I could not successfully complete the video identification. What should I do?

As long as your VideoID activation code is valid, the system allows you to resume the session from where you left it.

